Sonoma Valley Day At the State Fair

Six Pretty Valley of the Moon Maids Will Distribute Pears. Fruit Growers and Business Men Co-operate.

Today is to be Sonoma Valley Day at the State Fair, when the Sonoma county booth will feature Sonoma Bartlett pears, to be given free to all visitors. Six pretty Valley of the Moon maids, Misses Adler, Bianchini, Schell, Noyes, Cordell and Forni will distribute the fruit. The young ladies, wearing white dresses and gold ribbons with Sonoma greetings, will preside over the booth and answer all inquiries about their home valley.

The charming delegation left this morning at 5 a. m. for the capital city. Secretary Charles LaTorres of the Sonoma Business Men's Association, furnished the car to convey these pretty "pairs" to Sacramento.

Fruit growers who co-operated with the Business Men's Association to put over the Sonoma Valley feature at the Fair were Messrs. Watt, Picetti, Fernandez, Clement, Batto, Helberg and others.

Thanks are also due the accommodating force at the Vineburg packing house for packing and preparing the State Fair fruit for shipment. Mrs. E. Forni and daughter, Mrs. Al Groskopf and Roy Hyatt did everything possible to assist.

ANNOUNCEMENT

W. E. Bledsoe has opened the Sonoma Garage near the Don Theatre, Sonoma, Calif., and is prepared to expert work on all cars. General repairing and electrical work are Mr. Bledsoe's specialties. Acetylene welding done. A full stock of accessories. Try the Sonoma Garage for satisfactory work. Phone 160.—adv.

Five garages are being built by Sam Sebastiani, one for each of his bungalows in the Plaza Hotel tract.

SONOMA COUNTY TAXES HIGHER

Rate For 1922 Will Be Higher Both
In the Cities and In the Rural Districts.

The supervisors set the tax rate Wednesday.
The rate within cities will be $3.10 this year, an increase of 40 cents and the rate outside cities will be $3.50, an increase of 20 cents.

The increases are effective in every fund except advertising, which is cut from one cent to four-tenths of a cent. This led to a revival of the report that the board of trade appropriation will not be in this year's budget, and that county advertising will be reduced by that much.

The tax rates, with a comparison of last year's rates, follows:

	1922	1921
General Fund	$1.268	$1.161
School	.84	.56
County High School	.40	.314
Salary	.252	.21
Indigent	.20	.149
Bond	.40	.02
County Highway Bond	.296	.276
Advertising	.004	.01

Total $3.10 $2.70
Last year the road fund tax was 40 cents and there was a special road fund tax of 20 cents. This year there is a road tax of 40 cents. These taxes apply to the outside district only.

JIMMY ACQUISTAPACE ENTERS BUSINESS COLLEGE

Jimmy Acquistapace of Agua Caliente, 17 year old son of Mrs. Annie Acquistapace, has entered the Santa Rosa business college for a six month course. He is boarding with Mrs. Lena Wright in the City of Roses, but expects to come home Saturdays and Sundays to visit his mother.

Jimmy is a bright boy and is wished much success by his friends in Sonoma Valley.

1922 FRUIT SHIPMENTS EXCEED PREVIOUS YEARS

Over 150 Carloads of Sonoma Valley
Apples, Pears, Plums, and Peaches

Sonoma Valley's fruit shipments for 1922 have so far exceeded in quantity all previous year's shipments by over one third. For the past six weeks Vineburg packing houses have been beehives of industry with the result that over 150 cars of fruit have been shipped from that point alone to outside markets. The Vineburg figures to date are as follows: Pears, 86 cars; apples, 59 cars; plums, 10 cars; Peaches, 3 cars. Forty cars of Sonoma Valley Apple Growers Association Gravensteins went East and twelve carloads of Sonoma Bartlett Pears.

The fruit is of the finest quality this year and the harvesting and shipping of the crop has given employment to many people.

In addition to the Association packing house at Vineburg, the C. B. Williams Company, represented by W. E. Helberg, has maintained a packing unit on the Vineburg siding also and has shipped fruit under an attractive Sonoma label. The Sonoma Apple Growers' Association has from the start packed and shipped Sonoma fruit with a handsome label descriptive of the Valley of the Moon.

HON. THEODORE BELL MET TRAGIC DEATH

Theodore Bell, prominent lawyer, politician and friend of the grape growers, met a tragic death in Marin county Monday night when the auto he was riding in went over a 40 foot embankment. His companion, L. M. Mizner, was slightly injured.

Mr. Bell was returning from a hunting trip to Lagunitas. The driver of the car, blinded by the bright lights of another motorist, swerved his car off the road and it turned over three times, finally pinning Bell beneath it and injuring him internally.

Mr. Bell was one of the most prominent and beloved men in California. He attended high honor in politics and in 1908 presided at the Democratic national convention in Denver.

Born in Vallejo and raised amid the beautiful vineyards of Napa county, Bell was deeply interested in the cause of those who were hit by prohibition. He made a conscientious and determined fight for the wine men of California and was looking forward to the time when the vintages of our golden state would no longer be outlaw produce.

The funeral takes place from the old Bell home in Napa county Saturday. As a mark of respect to the memory of the distinguished lawyer, the court of Judge Cabaness in San Francisco adjourned Tuesday, the following expression of regard being written into the records:

This court today adjourns out of respect to the memory of Theodore Bell, statesman and lawyer. His many attributes, his kindness of heart and graciousness of manner and especially his pleasing personality, won him high respect in the hearts of all who knew him. In the words of the poet:

None knew him but to love him,
None named him but in praise.

MRS. FETTERS LEFT ESTATE OF $50,000

Letters of administration on the estate of Emma Feters, deceased, are asked by George Feters, husband of the deceased, through Attorney W. F. Cowan. The estate, according to the application, does not exceed $50,000. The income is estimated to not exceed $2500 yearly.

The petition lists personal property as follows: Fixtures and furniture, $3000; jewelry, $1500; automobile, $1000 and wearing apparel.

An interest in 97 acres of land at the springs, valued at $25,000, is also listed. Mrs. Feters left no will and his petition is filed in behalf of his interest as sole heir, which may suffer by failure to appoint an administrator at once.

BURBANK DAY AT STATE FAIR

Thousands of people at the State Fair Thursday greeted the world's greatest horticultural genius, Luther Burbank at the Sonoma county exhibit. All who visited Mr. Burbank were presented with an autographed miniature photo of the plant wizard.

This arrangement of Burbank Day for California's largest state fair was the contribution of the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce in honor of their beloved fellow citizen.

Editor Frank Cooke and wife of Healdsburg passed through Sonoma Wednesday on their way home from a camping trip to Lake Tahoe. Mr. Cooke will teach printing in the Modesto high school this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Lane and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Robinson and little son, Donald, motored to Sacramento on Thursday and attended the state fair. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pauli and the Misses McGimsey are vacationing at Dillon Beach.

James Moore, the resort proprietor who was arrested following the death of George Bruns at El Verano, was discharged from custody Tuesday, there being insufficient evidence to warrant further prosecution of the charges against the accused.

Attorney Brennen, for Moore, first brought out the point at the hearing before Judge Justi that there was no certificate or evidence to show that Bruns had been the victim of foul play. Testimony by Dr. Hays, who had examined the skull of deceased was not conclusive and there was no evidence, declared Brennen, to connect Moore with the death. He, therefore, asked a dismissal without putting any witnesses for the defense on the stand. Holding the case against Moore to be insufficient, Judge Justi immediately dismissed all charges connecting Moore with Bruns' tragic end.

As yet no light has been shed on the origin of the fire in which Bruns was incinerated or any theory advanced as to how his skull came by the ugly beveled cut in it. Neighbors and friends in the El Verano district scout the suicide theory and believe there was foul play.

The coroner's jury, following the death of Bruns, brought in the following verdict on August 14th:

"We, the coroner's jury, called to inquire into the cause of death of George Bruns, find that on August 13, 1922, he came to his death from unknown causes and we recommend the proper officials look further into the causes of his death.

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jensen of San Francisco were here over Labor Day.

H. Ammann, El Verano's rising young business man, was in Petaluma over Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Champlin, popular Agua Caliente teacher, was visiting in the bay city Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Cheney of Sparks, Nevada, arrived here Sunday evening for a visit with relatives.

Charles Danielli of a leading San Francisco rubber company, was here Sunday visiting relatives.

John Angeles made an auto trip to San Rafael last Saturday, bringing home several friends on the return trip.

Billy Peterson of the Standard Oil

Company, Richmond, and Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan were here last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Moore and a party of friends were here Sunday from Vallejo, visiting Sonoma Valley relatives.

Ollie and Charles Childs are here from San Francisco on their annual vacation. Ollie is a conductor for the city railway.

Bill Sutter, Uncle Sam's soldier boy, was here the first of the week. Bill is now stationed at the Presidio in San Francisco.

B. Nordson and Percy Carmer, old time Sonoma boys, but now of Benecia, were here last week renewing old acquaintances.

O. T. Wilkinson, W. Chester, T. H. Baines and H. Hummel were witnesses subpoenaed at the Moore hearing in Glen Ellen Tuesday.

Joe Fitzgerald, politician and leading musician at the El Verano Villa, was on a sight seeing tour to the county seat last Saturday.

Tom Muldowney, pensioner and a former captain of the San Francisco fire department, is spending several days here, looking things over.

Miss Irene Dowdall, popular El Verano girl, has returned to Concord where she has been for some time, after a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. F. LaFranchi entertained over Labor Day Mr. and Mrs. D. Zerga and Mr. and Mrs. George Ganiats at San Francisco at the Helvetia Hotel.

El Verano resorts were crowded over Labor Day with pleasure seekers. Most of them remained over the week to celebrate admission day in the Valley of the Moon.

Company, Richmond, and Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan were here last Saturday.

Bob Stanleigh of the Sonoma Index-Tribune was through the valley Labor Day and reports a most wonderful time as a guest of the El Camino Club, which was at Agua Caliente Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Steckmeyer and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Wilkinson and little son motored to Woodworth's summer resort in Napa county on Howell Mountain Sunday, and report a wonderful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hay of Oakland were guests at the T. H. Baines home over the week end. Mr. Hay is a member of the Hay Realty Company of that city and is delighted with the climate and scenery of Sonoma Valley.

Some unknown vandal Sunday night cut the seats and otherwise damaged the new Dodge car of Albert Rossi. The owner is on the track of the miscreant and pronounces vengeance on the knife wielder when he runs him to earth.

The cases of Jack Main and Wm. Kirby of Verano were dismissed at Santa Rosa last week because of lack of evidence. It is said that liquor bottles were found by the federal officers when the place was raided, but no liquor.

County Clerk W. W. Felt has forwarded a book of registration affidavits to Deputy Registration Clerk Tom Mullen and until Oct. 7, anyone not already on the great register for the November general election may register at Mullen's Store, El Verano.

One night last week as Emil Cornelius, U. S. mail carrier, was making the run to Sonoma, he came in contact with a fly, which landed in his right to stop the car and get aid from a family residing near the Sonoma bridge. Cornelius suffered terrible pain for some time, and although the danger is now past, the eye still bears traces of the poisonous insect.

A number of the defeated candidates in the late primaries, have sailed for Salt River, where they will hunt for new fields to conquer in the political game. We wish them bon voyage. When last seen they were in Embarcadero, headed for the Golden Gate.

Pat Canavan, who has been spending his vacations here for 20 years, is in town, registered at the Helvetia Hotel. His many friends are glad to see him looking hale and hearty. Pat is now running a soft drink emporium in San Francisco and says business is good.

Earl Revie and Leo Vincent, our popular butcher, were joy riding to Davis Sunday. The boys had a wonderful trip and claim the speed law is enforced in that section. Many cops were on duty waiting for speeders, and the heavy traffic is handled to perfection.

William M. Corbin of Delavan was here last week, a guest of his cousin, D. W. Corbin. Mr. Corbin is a stock raising king at the above place, having a large swine ranch. His visit here was enjoyed and he thinks he may dispose of his holdings in Delavan and locate in these parts.

Frankie Denny, Oakland pugilist, who had a party some time back with Panama Joe Gans as guest in an Oakland ring, coming out of the battle with his ribs caved in, is in town and claims he is off the coon fighters for life. Otherwise the Oakland scraper is O. K. and is the guest at the Nufer cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murphy of the Sonoma Index-Tribune were here on Saturday evening visiting friends and patrons and receiving congratulations on the winning fight their paper made at the late primaries. This paper supported all the winning candidates from governor down to all the county offices.

The valley was thrown into wild excitement Monday by the siren of the Boyes Springs fire engine, which was called out for a small grass fire near the Dowdall ranch. People thought by the warning siren of the approaching fire engine that our city was on fire.

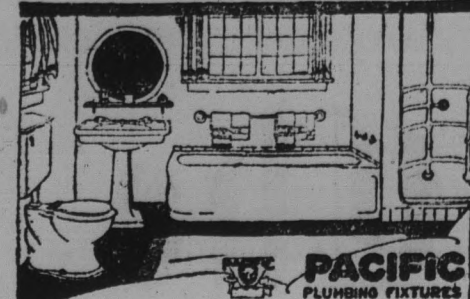

The after-talk of the primary election around the valley is the great run made by our popular assessor, J. C. Hoke Smith, made. In every precinct in this valley he carried heavy. Much credit is due to Nick Gill for the large majority polled at the Agua Caliente precinct.

C. McDewitt, an old and respected resident of this place, after a long and lingering illness, passed away last Thursday evening. The deceased leaves a wife and several children to mourn him. The remains were sent to San Francisco on Saturday and the funeral was held Monday. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery.

Frenchy Lee, a colored gentleman, of Sonoma, has started his career as a boxer and is under the guidance of Professor Fields and has been working out at Parente's training quarters. The professor tells the world that he will make a champion out of Lee and bring fame to Sonoma Valley. Louis Parente will look after the colored boy's affairs and help him climb. He will have his first go in an Oakland ring.

The El Camino Club of San Francisco for three days held reign over Agua Caliente Springs. Saturday evening the members were met at the station by a large number of the natives and citizens and the key of the thriving town was turned over to the pleasure seekers by Mayor Nick Gill, upon their arrival. Mayor Gill delivered a wonderful address of welcome. The Club remained at the Springs for three days, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Corcoran. Dancing was enjoyed at the bath house and entertainment and the wonderful swaying was in progress. An orchestra accompanied the club on their outing. It was a gala three-days' event which will be long remembered. Noticeable among the club members were the beautiful young ladies, who came here to enjoy the outing.

The Freundschaft Sangerbund of San Francisco took Oak Grove by storm over Labor Day and a large crowd visited the resort to hear the famous German singers. Henry Koerner, proprietor of Oak Grove, is there when it comes to singing, and was wildly applauded as he rattled off the good, old time German songs. The big event was Sunday evening when Dull Care was given a funeral and cremated, while beautiful fireworks illuminated the heavens.

P. H. McCarthy and family spent the week end at their summer home in Sonoma Vista from San Francisco. Mr. McCarthy was formerly California's well known state labor leader and in the great fight for United States senator took the stump for California's favorite son, Hiram Johnson, making some great speeches throughout the state. He once served the city of San Francisco two terms as mayor and is now a leader in politics throughout the state.

BROTHER ARRESTED HIM

James Mason, city marshal of Healdsburg, was down this way Saturday, enroute to San Francisco. Mr. Mason is a brother of George C. Mason, candidate for assessor.

During the campaign an inquiring woman voter asked George Mason if he had ever been arrested. Mr. Mason then told about his brother, the city marshal. He confessed that he had been arrested once by his brother. It was up in Healdsburg during the flu epidemic, when everyone was required to wear gauze masks and the city marshal had been ordered to enforce strictly the order. To his horification, the first offender he encountered was his brother, George, coming down town without his mask. He promptly arrested him and a fine of $10 was paid. Mason declares that it runs in the family to play no favorites which is a good trait for a prospective county assessor.

WILD OATS CLUB PLANNING BARBECUE

The Wild Oats Club, which is composed of a number of the leading citizens of Sonoma, is making preparations for a big barbecue and all day celebration, which is to be held in the near future. This is an annual event and the committee in charge state that this year's festivities will eclipse anything heretofore staged by the club. A delicious menu has been outlined and a fine orchestra will be engaged for the day.

The barbecue this year will be in the nature of a welcome home reception to the president of the Wild Oats Club, Ben Pinder, who is at present making a tour of the East and visiting relatives. Mr. Pinder has been president of the club since its organization and is highly esteemed by his fellow-members.

WHEN JOE RYAN RAN FOR SHERIFF

Figures on the sheriff's contest in 1918 when James Petray of Healdsburg and Joe Ryan of Sonoma made the run for the office are interesting as compared with the figures on the recent primaries.

Ryan, the Sonoma candidate in 1918 won out in Sonoma Valley with 1012 votes.

In the election last week J. H. Murray, the Sonoma candidate, had a total of 447 votes in Sonoma Valley precincts.

Petray's entire majority in the county over Ryan was 448 votes. James Petray received 5996 votes and Joe Ryan 5548 votes.

Sheriff Boyes' majority this election was 2628 over both Murray and Wiley. He received in all 7520 votes.

JACK DEMPSEY MAY TRAIN AT PARENTE'S

Jack Dempsey, world champion, is expected to come to Sonoma Valley and train at Parente's training quarters. He would have Harlan Bunker for his sparring partner while here.

Mr. Parente, while in Los Angeles, interviewed both Dempsey and Willard and in all probability, the eyes of the sporting world will soon be trained on Verano, should Dempsey go into training there.

Tomorrow at 3 p. m., there will be a workout at Parente's gymnasium. Among the boxers to be seen in action will be Frenchy Lee, Joe White, Buck Holly, Frankie Denny, Frank Thurston, and Harlan Bunker. Doc Morris of Los Angeles will also be present with a Bakersfield celebrity. Professor Joe Fields will be in charge of the afternoon's performance. Everything is free and a good time is promised.

HOURS OF MASSES

Until further notice, hours of masses in Sonoma Valley will be as follows: St. Francis church, 9 a. m. Boyes Springs, 11 a. m.

REV. J. F. BYRNE.

Admission Day Proclamation By Grand President Harry G. Williams

To all Native Sons of the Golden West, to all Californians, and to all Americans:—

The cycle of time again brings us the Ninth of September and it is well that we pause to consider that this day marks the natal day of our beloved and glorious State of California.

This year we celebrate the 72nd anniversary of the admission of California into the Federal Union. An event that marked the end of the era of our uncertainty as to our national status, whether a confederation of separate peoples or a single nation, one and indivisible. When Millard Fillmore, President of the United States, on September 9, 1850, dipped his pin in the ink to sign the act admitting California into our Union, he dipped it in the Well of Destiny and wrote into the annals of civilization words of far-reaching effect.

It was the admission of California, the thirty-first State, that broke the carefully maintained balance which had been maintained in the national Senate.

It was the admission of California, the sixteenth Free State, that marked the beginning of the end of slavery.

It was the admission of California, the first State bordering upon the Pacific, that placed our national boundary firmly on the western shore.

Of the events preceding the admission of California into the Union, every American should look with pride. California, alone of all the States admitted after the thirteen original States, came into the Union without territorial childhood; and this fact is but an evidence of the stirring days of the Forties. Here on this far-flung western shore, remote from the seat of power, without force to compel it and in defiance of the traditions of every other gold rush known to the annals of man, the sturdy, independent, tolerant upright pioneers had erected a government founded upon no other charter than the Will of the People. Here chivalry abounded, here integrity alone vouched one, here courage was the common attribute, and here a man was weighed only in his true worth.

For nearly a year our fathers had conducted a full grown, virile American State, our State government dating its birth on December 19, 1849. Admission Day then really signifies that it was on that date that California strengthened the family of the Nation by the advent of a full grown member; and on that day enriched the American law by the addition of new and most desirable principles. Need I say more on this line than to indicate the fact that it was California which wrote into our law the doctrine that a wife is a partner and not a chattel.

When in the centuries to come, the historian, looking back over the ages, comes to writing of the brightest period in American civilization, he will put the Days of Forty-Nine in the same category with the Age of Pericles and the Times of Augustus Caesar. For, though our glory be multiplied and our power tripled, never will mankind see a more glorious period nor more Godlike people.

All hail to the Pioneers of California; every reverence let us show to the men of forty-nine. Let the spirit of forty-nine be our standard and the republic is safe and humanity justified.

To the sons of the soil there comes at birth an heritage and a duty. To us who have been privileged to be born under the balmy skies of California, there has come an heritage fairer and greater than the seers of old beheld in the dream of the golden future. We have been blessed beyond the fondest hopes of mankind; and with this heritage came the duty to forever uphold the traditions and the civilization of the founders: Let us hold fast to their tried, true and proven doctrines.

To every Native Son I proclaim the inviolability of the law; and I command you, as your chosen leader, to obey its precepts. In these days of trial, I exhort you to walk upright and with the utmost respect for our government and our traditions. To you has been given great gifts, from you the least to be expected is good example. It is not that our law is to be considered perfect, but that we should cure its defects only in the manner of our fathers; let our example to the world and to the sojourners within our gates be in the slogan of our Order, Down with oppression and up with the law.

Our duty is founded in good citizenship; let no Native Son neglect his obligation in this respect. See to it that the force of reason shall ever prevail over the forces of passion and sedition. You are freemen, citizens of the greatest nation that ever existed on the earth. Let no act of yours even in the smallest degree savor of disrespect for the institutions of America, but fear no consequence when engaged in the work of your country and your State. Keep California white, keep California clean, and make her the guiding star, not only of America, but of all mankind.

Remember that the Native Sons of the Golden West are banded together in an unselfish brotherhood; that we do not hold that we are better than men born beyond the borders of our State; that we feel as sons of a common mother, California, a higher duty is coming from us to spread her fame, to keep her name untarnished, to maintain her honor unsullied and to cherish her highest ideals. Keep ever in mind that upon us devolves a sacred trust, even as an heritage, to so teach by precept and example, that the spirit of forty-nine shall not perish. Above all things, never lose sight of our obligation which is to ever be ready to serve our country whether in peace or in war. Consider at all times that unless you do your full duty as citizens you will fail to keep that obligation as to times of peace.

With exaltation of spirit and personal humility, as Grand President of the Native Sons of the Golden West, I proclaim to you, to all our fellow Californians by birth or adoptions, to all Americans and in the face of the world, that Saturday, the Ninth Day of September, shall be a day of rejoicing in our land. I command you to give over all thought of self on that day; go forth on that day and by your acts and words exhibit the glory that is California to all men.

Done at Oakland, California, this 31st day of August, 1922.

HARRY G. WILLIAMS,
Grand President.

Miss Pauline Robin, Mrs. M. French and Oliver French and Jack Geary came up from San Francisco this week for a visit with relatives here.

INDEX-TRIBUNE IS NOW OFFICIAL CITY PAPER

The City Trustees met Wednesday night and among other business, opened bids for publishing and printing for 1922-1923. The Sonoma Index-Tribune was named the official city newspaper for the fiscal year.

W. J. Locke of the firm of Mason & Locke, municipal attorneys, was named city attorney of Sonoma at a salary of $30 per month.

In the matter of the compensation for R. R. Emparan, who broke his leg at a fire while carrying a hose to a burning veranda, a hearing on the claim will come up Monday, the Compensation Insurance Company to adjust the matter at that time.

Progress was reported on the extension of sidewalks along frontages now unimproved. Property owners will make the required improvements shortly.

Enrico Castagnasso appeared before the Board, objecting to outside peddlers claiming exemption from license fees because of their ex-soldier status. He produced a letter from an attorney showing that only disabled ex-service men could claim the exemption. City Marshal Albertson was instructed to collect fees in accordance with this opinion.

Bills for the current month were allowed and ordered paid.

COUNTY COMMITTEES TO MEET TUESDAY

The newly elected county central committees will meet for organization next Tuesday at Santa Rosa.

W. L. Murphy, with other local committeemen, received formal notification of their election yesterday from County Clerk W. W. Felt, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Yocum are enjoying the sights and attractions of the state fair at Sacramento before locating for the winter. Mr. Yocum was with the Foster ranch for two years and since leaving there has been enjoying a much needed vacation.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. SCHOOL R-OPENED WITH BIG ATTENDANCE

The Sonoma Valley Union High School opened Tuesday with registrations which indicate the largest attendance in the history of the school. About 140 students will be enrolled and will overtax the present building's class rooms.

The new school building will be ready for occupancy by December 1. The Sonoma Grammar School opened with a big attendance also and the new room and extra teacher are proving valuable factors in caring for this rapidly growing grammar school.

RAMELLI RANCH IS SOLD

The Charles Ramelli ranch of 83 acres has been sold by O. R. Wagner to Petaluma parties, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramelli, and family, who will retire from their fine ranch, are among Sonoma Valley's most substantial citizens. Mr. Ramelli will take well deserved rest from active business. He has resided in the United States over 40 years and is a man well informed on business and political conditions throughout the country.

Mrs. Elmer Smith of San Francisco has been a guest at the home of Miss Florence Murphy.

CARELESS HUNTER SLAYS NOBLE ELK

The bull elk which for years has ranged the T. J. Hutchinson ranch east of Santa Rosa was found dead on a remote part of the range on last Saturday. The animal had evidently been dead for some time, presumably the victim of a deer hunter's bullet.

The elk was the only one known in this part of the country and was highly valued by Mr. Hutchinson. He has taken great care to protect the animal and has rigidly enforced prohibition of all hunting on his place.

The killing of an elk is a penitentiary offense. Hutchinson is not satisfied to let things rest and has offered a $100 reward to any one giving information leading to the conviction of the person who killed the elk.—Santa Rosa Republican.

WEDDING BELLS CHIME AT ELDRIDGE

Three Couples at the State Home at Eldridge Are Happy Newlyweds During Past Ten Days.

(By LOUIS BARTELL)

What appears to be a contagious epidemic of matrimony has struck the employees of the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge. No less than three couples within the last ten days, have promised to love, cherish and endure each other until death or unforeseen circumstances do them part. Each one of the three marriages are of such a romantic nature that, were Jack London still with us, he would find sufficient material for three separate novels.

James G. Knege, the second assistant landscape gardener, and Domina Nola, a native of Dalmatia were married in San Francisco last Monday. Mr. Knege came to San Francisco from Dalmatia when but 14 years of age. He secured employment in the city and attended night school to fit himself for real American citizenship. In the course of 20 years Mr. Knege acquired an 80-acre ranch east of Agua Caliente. During all these years he corresponded with a friend in Dalmatia, and in later years with his friend's sister, who was only an infant when Mr. Knege left home. After the exchange of many letters and some photographs, a long distance love affair developed. About six weeks ago Miss Nola arrived in San Francisco. After a courtship of three weeks they were married and are now enjoying their honeymoon on their ranch in Hooker Canyon near Agua Caliente.

The second couple of employees that were married were Miss Lucile Richey and William Eicke. Miss Richey is one of the nurses in the hospital department of the Home. She has been in Eldridge for two years and through her pleasant personality and efficient service, she endeared herself to all with whom she has come in contact.

Mr. Eicke is a fireman and has been employed here for some time and is well liked by those in charge as well as his fellow employees. About three weeks ago Mr. Eicke had the misfortune (or good fortune) to injure his hand in some machinery in the engine room, and Nurse Richey dressed the wound for the injured man. Although this was their first meeting, it appears to have been love at first sight, for last week they both secured several days leave of absence and went to Sacramento and were married.

The third happy couple is Miss Dulcie Frater and Frederick Ross. Miss Frater is the surgical nurse in the hospital department and has made many friends during her year's stay in Eldridge. She was an army nurse during the war, but the armistice was signed just as she was to embark for France.

Mr. Ross is an ex-service man and has been visiting at Eldridge for the past two weeks. Miss Frater and Mr. Ross have known each other for several years. On August 31st they left for North Platte, Neb., Miss Frater's home, where they were married immediately upon their arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross expect to return to Eldridge on October 1st.

Eldridge Has Corn Chaser

Great oaks from little acorns grow. Also large fortunes are often started in an obscure attic and undying fame may be acquired by the most humble.

These facts are encouraging Assistant Supervisor E. A. Griswold of the Sonoma State Home that he may become both rich and famous.

Mr. Griswold stated that when he was young and foolish he took up the study of medicine, and when he was more foolish he abandoned the study and took up "bug housing." However, he has not neglected his studies during his spare moments, but has diligently studied corns. Also their effect on the human disposition and their possible elimination.

Last week Mr. Griswold claimed he had perfected something to relieve suffering humanity from corns forever. Whether the corn eliminator is a medicine or a machine is not known. Last Saturday Mr. Griswold went to Sacramento to perfect plans with his attorney and also interest capital in his venture.

We may soon see the Griswold Corn Eliminator on the market and shoe-wearing humanity throughout the world will call the name of Griswold blessed.

ADMISSION DAY PICNIC TO BE A BIG EVENT

Chairman W. S. Borba of the committee arranging for the big Admission Day celebration at Mirabel Park on Saturday, Sept. 9, announces that word has been received by his committee that practically the entire county will suspend business on that day and join in the festivities under the auspices of the county parlors of the Native Sons. Although arranged by the Natives, the big picnic is for the benefit of the general public and all are invited to participate in the celebration of California's birthday.

A varied and extensive program of events is being arranged for the entertainment of the visitors. All kinds of athletic contests will be pulled off, with valuable prizes for the winners. These prizes have been donated by the merchants of the various county towns. The printed program also tells of a valuable gate prize to be awarded.

Free dancing to the strains of the best music will be a lure that will attract many of the county's young people.

The tentative program is as follows:
11 a. m.—Swimming contests.
12 m.—Lunch.
1 p. m.—Dancing.
1:30 p. m.—Speaking, Judge Seawell.
2 p. m.—Dancing.
2:30 p. m.—Athletic events.
4 p. m.—Drawing for gate prize.

PROGRESS ON BLACK POINT CUT-OFF WORK

The following report on Black Point highway construction has been received this week from the engineer appointed by the associated civic bodies of Sonoma Valley and the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce:

Healy Tibbets Contract

This work is showing a marked increase of activity, the rate of completion having been trebled during the past week.

A pipe line is now being constructed northward from Fairville; this will expedite construction as well as produce a better grade of work.

Gravel has been placed on the road bed between Fairville and Quarries.

On the Schellville end, 3900 additional linear feet of roadway have been completed, the road is now open from Schellville to the Napa county line.

At the rate of speed shown, weather permitting, completion of this contract may be expected about Nov. 6, 1922.

Percentage of completion to Sept. 2, 1922, 83.9 per cent. Rate of completion per day during the past week, .313 per cent or about 1 per cent in a little more than three days. Balance to be completed, 16 1-10 per cent.

Grant Smith Contract

This contract shows about the same rate of progress as made in last report. Subgrading for asphalt surface is now approaching Sears Point.

To Sept. 2nd inclusive, there is now laid 21,527 linear feet of complete 5-inch asphalt, in addition to this are 2300 linear feet of 3 1-2-inch asphalt.

Percentage of completion to Sept. 2, 1922, 61 3-4 per cent. Rate of completion per day during the past week, .67 per cent or about 4 per cent every six days, balance to be completed, 38 1-4 per cent. Under these circumstances, weather permitting, it is reasonable to expect completion of this work about Nov. 17, 1922.

Work on the auxiliary asphalt plant is proceeding very slowly. Two more units of the plant are on the ground, but are not yet in place; a few of the minor parts are in place on the main mixer.

Contractor expects to have his plant running by the 15th of September, unless more speed is shown on this plant it is problematic whether it will be finished in time to effect any material advance in the time of completion of this contract.

H. H. JONES,
Examining Engineer.

PLACERVILLE PEARS BRING $4.70 PER BOX IN BOSTON

A carload of Bartlett pears sold Friday of last week in Boston for the account of the Placerville Fruit Association at an average price of $4.70 per box.

These returns are $1 above previous averages and indicate a very strong trend in the market. Bartlett pears from Placerville are noted for bringing the highest prices on the Eastern market. Between 15 and 30 cars are leaving Placerville daily and it is expected that the season's total will reach over 500 cars.

MAGNIFICENT FLOW OF ARTESIAN WATER

A. Pinelli has struck one of the finest artesian wells in the country on his property here in Sonoma. The well is located on the tract recently purchased from Otto VonGeldern. At 300 feet, D. Volquardsen, who was boring the well, went through a strata of solid rock from which the water gushed forth. It flows a constant 2-inch stream and the water is of the finest quality.

The well is in the same zone as that recently struck back of the Fior d'Italia hotel by Sam Sebastiani.

WHAT STATE FAIR HAS DONE FOR BETTER CATTLE

The visitor to the large cattle markets of the United States 20 to 30 years ago viewed a much different type of cattle than the visitor sees today in the same yards. Steers came to the market then four to six years old, and even older. They were larger, rougher and represented much more feed and labor than the present-day type. A visit today will show thousands and thousands of thin, scrub beeves, yet the general type and conformation has been improved. The cattle are found for the most part yearlings, two's and three's. From the standpoint of the breeder, feeder, packer and consumer, the earlier maturing, easier feeding type has proven more profitable and most satisfactory.

The breeder and feeder desire steers which will produce the greatest amount of high quality beef from the least feed in the shortest possible time. The younger type of cattle do not tie up capital for half the time that was formerly thought necessary to produce marketable beef and a quicker turnover of the working capital is thus possible.

Higher priced farm lands, feeds and labor have made these changes necessary. No doubt the transition would have taken place without the influence of the California State Fair, and the many county fairs, but it is generally agreed that these agencies have been instrumental in bringing about the changes much more quickly than could otherwise happen.

It was at the California State Fair that the stockmen first saw what could be done in feeding the younger cattle. Of course, the change was gradual, but in the contests at the fair some exhibitor would present for approval a single superior steer of carload of steers equal to those on the grounds but much younger.

There is an old saying that seeing is believing and to see one has to attend the State Fair. The pride of every man in every business is to do his work better than his neighbor and when he has accomplished this the natural thing to do is to show his neighbor what he had done and compete with him.

The State Fair furnished a medium for this competition, hence most modern methods are exhibited and explained for the breeder and feeder.

$750 PAID FOR SONOMA COUNTY COW

Charles Barboni is becoming well known through out the county as one of the most successful breeders of thoroughbred cattle. The sale of Emerald de Kol Segis thoroughbred Holstein, to R. C. Rasmussen for $750 marks the highest price paid for a Sonoma county bred cow.

The cow was recently offered for sale following the fair in Petaluma for $1000. At this time she was with calf and following the birth of the calf Barboni offered the mother for sale for $750. He is retaining the bull calf at $250 and is reported to have refused one offer of purchase. Both of the cattle men are firm believers in good stock.

CLUB NOTES

A meeting of unusual interest was held at the Woman's Club house on Friday, Sept. 1. After discussion of minor affairs, the Water and Power Act was taken up. For future knowledge on the subject and voting thereon, it was decided to invite a speaker to address the Club. Later, a debate will be given by two able speakers on the subject, to which the public is cordially invited. Such a debate should bring a large attendance. The evening of Sept. 15th a reception will be held to celebrate the twenty-first anniversary of the Club, and also to greet the new members who have joined the Club during the past year, thus showing cordiality and sincere club spirit. A choice program will be given under the direction of Mrs. Wicker. The committee on refreshments is Mrs. Burlingame, Mrs. Adler and Mrs. Koeboom. A most delightful evening is anticipated and we trust the anniversary will not be forgotten.

VISITORS AT THE MOUYER INN

Among the congenial crowd at L. Mouyer's Inn at El Verano over Labor Day were P. Burns, connected with the S. P.; Mrs. Healey and family of the San Francisco fire department; Mr. and Mrs. J. Cashew of the U. S. Shipping Board, and W. Muller and J. S. Boath of the American Can Company. All of the guests had a very enjoyable outing and plan to return soon.

WATMAUGH SCHOOL IS PROGRESSING

There have been more improvements made on the Watmaugh school premises recently than in many years. At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees, it was reported by the clerk that, during vacation, the schoolhouse the stable and front fence had received two coats of paint, applied by Muller & Downey, which improves the appearance wonderfully. It was moved by the clerk, C. C. Champlin, and seconded by Trustees Tallman and Douglass that a vote of thanks be given George Carpenter for donating to the school many loads of gravel which will greatly improve the ground for the winter season.

A large, new flag floats from the flagpole daily, the flag being made by the inmates of San Quentin. The schoolhouse has just been insured, for the first time in the memory of man. The trustees moved to have bids prepared for the installation of a windmill, tank, tower and septic tank. This is for fire protection, for the growing of vegetation and for a modern toilet system. The trustees meetings are held publicly at the schoolhouse, and at the last meeting a number of the parents were present with suggestions for the good of the school.

at last the Kaiser speaks

If anybody knows the truth about the tangle of court intrigue, diplomatic chicanery and militaristic ambition which destroyed imperial Germany and plunged five continents in war, it is the ex-Kaiser.

For four years, ever since the abdication and flight into Holland, William Hohenzollern has maintained silence. Now, at last, he has dropped the masque and told the whole story of Germany's imperial enterprise. Arraigned before the court of world opinion, the Kaiser makes his plea. It is easily one of the most interesting historical documents ever penned.

The Kaiser's Memoirs will start in the Bulletin on September 25th and run serially in every issue until finished. Every newspaper reader in the world will want to read this fascinating story, which is appearing simultaneously in daily newspapers published in every quarter of the globe. But the San Francisco Bulletin is the only California newspaper north of the Tehachapi in which you can read this great feature, for which we have secured exclusive rights. Send in your subscription to the Bulletin today so that you may miss no part of the story.

Mr. Weber is an old schoolmate of both Mr. and Mrs. Fisk, and the reunion caused much pleasure. Mr. Weber, who is teller of the Sonoma Valley Bank, is motoring to San Diego and plans to revisit the Fisks on his return two weeks hence. —Pacific Grove Press.

SAFETY FOR TRAIN WINDOWS

Both Passengers and Glass Have to Be Protected on Railways on Sakhalin Island.

If one looks at a map of Siberia, he will see a group of islands that swing south near the mouth of the Amur river and come closest to the coast of China at Formosa and Fukien. Among them you will find the island of Sakhalin.

The Japanese declare that it wasn't very long after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth that a representative of a Japanese baron landed at Sakhalin. But it wasn't much later that Russian emigrants stepped foot on Sakhalin, and they remained, while many of the Japanese who came to colonize this cold northern land shivered in their robes and left. By the treaty which ended the Russo-Japanese war Sakhalin was divided between Russia and Japan.

There are less than 60 miles of railroad in the island of Sakhalin, says an exchange. But even more curious than the loud-voiced crows that line the road to the shrine on the heights of Toyohara is the appearance of the windows of the coaches in which ride the travelers in Sakhalin.

The car windows are gay with stripes of paint laid across the glass. Red, white or blue, and perhaps a combination of these colors appear on each window. If one asks the reason, the reply will be that these lines of glaring color are a warning to the untutored passengers not to try to stick their heads out, for many, not having seen window glass before, imagine the windows are open when they are closed.

MADE HIS CASE TOO STRONG

Ungrateful Client Resented His Lawyer's Representations Concerning His Mental Status.

The visitor to the lawyer's office stood in amazement. "I say, old man," he exclaimed: "what on earth has happened to you? Had a motor smash, or what?"

The lawyer shook his head. "No, You remember that case the other day when I defended a man charged with assault? Well, I made a strong plea for him on the ground that he was a fool rather than a criminal."

"Yes, but—" "I did it so well that he was acquitted, and he waited for me outside the court."

English as She Is Spoke. Louie Chevrolet, the automobile engineer, has long since parked all ideas of ever accumulating a stock of pure English language.

"How could I grasp it?" says Louie, a Frenchman by birth. "How could I get wise to your American English when you talk it the way you do?"

Then he went on to relate a circumstance to prove his point. Several months ago he sat with a group of friends. They were talking about an acquaintance who had met with financial reverses.

"He's down and out," said one. "He's all in," declared another. "It's all up with him," the third remarked.

And poor Louie, wrestling to learn the English language, sat and wondered just which way the fellow went. —Exchange.
